

Deadline Extended for Artist in Residence Program

January 2012, Victoria, BC – The deadline for proposals has been extended for the Artist in Residence Program at The Arts Centre at Cedar Hill. The Community Arts Council of Greater Victoria is launching this program with the goal of connecting professional artists with youth in the community. The deadline is now Friday, March 2nd, 2012, giving prospective participants an extra month to put together proposals. Working in collaboration with The Arts Centre at Cedar Hill and the Saanich Legacy Foundation, CACGV is seeking submissions from artists and artisans of all visual arts disciplines. Selection is by jury, with projects to be implemented as early as March, and completed by June 2012. Interested artists can email CACGV at coordinator@cacgv.ca for more information, and can access the application and information forms at www.cacgv.ca.
